

Geddy Aniksdal

Geddy Aniksdal was born in 1955, in Norway. She has since 1981 been part of the independent company Grenland Friteater from Porsgrunn.

The company has their own theatre. See www.grenlandfriteater.com

Geddy Aniksdal has taken part in all major performances since she started. She has also directed numerous works herself. She is the artistic director of Stedsans, a city development projects.

She has been an active member of the Magdalena Project since its beginning. In the Open Page Publications she is one of the editors. She find it very important that women artists should write about their experiences.

Geddy Aniksdal has toured her performances throughout the Magdalena network since 1986, and hope to continue doing so. New works, new talks, new networks are important parts of her working life. Geddy Aniksdal is also the mother of two children and grandmother of five grandchildren.

